NEWS FROM THE HANOVER HOSPITAL

Did you know that every 3 seconds someone in the world develops dementia?

Did you know that smoking, alcohol use, diabetes, and high cholesterol levels are risk factors for dementia?

Did you know that there are brain scans that can detect Alzheimer's-related changes in the brain before memory loss is evident?

Please join us for an evening of learning about dementia. It will be held on January 26th at 6:00 PM at the Kloppenberg Center.

Recently, the Hanover Hospital has partnered with the University of Kansas' Cognitive Care Network (CCN). The speaker for the evening will be Hanover Hospital's CCN Navigator, Cindy Miller. Cindy is a nurse who has been working with individuals with all types of dementias as well as their caregivers since 1989. She was the director for the State of Kansas' Alzheimer's Aging Specialists as well as the dementia care coordinator for the Alzheimer's Association, Heart of America Chapter.

The goal of the CCN program is to provide rural communities with resources to help minimize patients' symptoms of dementia and maximize their quality of life. The program is geared toward providing education and support to patients living with the disease, as well as their families and caretakers. Our goal at the Hanover Hospital is to work with Cindy and KU's Cognitive Care Network resources to make the cognitive impairment diagnosis early to help our patients live at home as independently and as safely for as long as possible.

Please keep in mind, you do NOT have to be a patient of ours to attend this event. You do not need a referral to meet with our Cognitive Care Network Navigator either. If you are interested in meeting with Cindy, please contact the Warren Clinic at 785-337-2214 and ask to speak with Aubrie or Jayda!
